Serving Tacoma Residents and Fort Lewis Personnel

Outstanding Federal Employees

Tacoma Public Library
1102 So. Tacoma Ave.
Tacoma, Wash. 98402

TOPS—Winners in the 12th annual "Federal Service Award of the Year" contest sponsored by the Tacoma Area Federal Executive Association (TAFEA) were announced at a luncheon at the Top of the Ocean last Wednesday. From left are Sergeant First Class James Temple, Major Joseph Ferluga, Mrs. Beatrice Davis, and Harold (Hank) Henderson, winners in the enlisted, commissioned, female and male categories.

Fort Lewis, Wash.—Harold (Hank Henderson, command equal opportunity officer, and Sergeant First Class James H. Temple of the 2nd MP Group have been named the area's outstanding male federal employee and military member, respectively.

Winners were announced at the 12th annual "Federal Service Award of the Year" luncheon sponsored by the Tacoma Area Federal Executive Association (TAFEA) at the Top of the Ocean in Tacoma this week.

The traditional affair, which honors federal civil servants and military personnel, attracted a capacity crowd of 350.

Henderson, who retired as a sergeant major after 20 years of service in October 1965, was cited for his "professional competence, initiative, ingenuity, perseverance and loyalty . . ." Special mention was made of his efforts, while president of TAFEA, in coordinating the first combined federal fund campaign which raised $197,000 for the needy of Pierce County.

Temple, a Vietnam veteran who wears the Silver Star, Soldiers Medal, two Purple Hearts, the Vietnamese Cross of Gallantry with silver star, and Combat Infantry Badge, is NCO in charge of what was hailed as an "exceptionally professional" AWOL section here. He has "firmly established himself as one of the leaders in the current field of truly professional law enforcement officials," judges said. Temple has also been active in PTA and scouting for many years.

Top winners in the female civilian and officer categories were Mrs. Beatrice Davis of Madigan General Hopsital and Major Joseph Ferluga of McChord Air Force Base.

Mrs. Shirley Rebbe of the Puget Sound Naval Shipyard received a special merit award. She was singled out for her contribution of repairing and clothing hundreds of dolls for needy children in the Bremerton area.

Other Fort Lewis candidates honored at the luncheon were Hugh B. Leach; Mmes, Raynola Blackshear, Gladys Engebretson, and Gladys Miller; Captains Gary N. Grasley, Mason L. Hopkins, and Thomas Staadt; Sergeant Douglas H. Fineman, Sergeant First Class Cap P. Craig, and Sergeant William Stansberry.

Harry M. Hunke, Jr., public affairs officer here, was general chairman for the event which also featured an address by Dr. Charles E. Odegaard, president of the University of Washington.

NCO Club Gets New Manager

Fort Lewis, Wash.—The "under new management" sign went up at the Fort Lewis Noncommissioned Officers Open Mess this week.

Master Sergeant F. G. Valley, NCO Club custodian since September, 1970, is leaving for duty in Germany and was succeeded by M-Sgt. H. D. Watts. Sgt. Watts managed the Cam Rhan Bay NCO Club in Vietnam before coming here.

Sergeant First Class Bobby Bierdon, assistant club custodian, is also headed for Germany. He will be replaced by Sergeant First Class Robert Foster.

Clean-up Time

Fort Lewis, Wash.—Thoughts of young men—and some of the older fellows, too—turn to cleanup and beautification Monday.

Major General Alexander R. Bolling, Jr., Fort Lewis commander, directed that soldiers be released from regular duties in the afternoon to join in the post's annual spring cleanup effort. Barracks, family residences, and public areas will be spruced up.

The General also set May 8 and 22 as "beautification" days.

Annual Clean-up Drive

Tacoma's annual spring clean-up campaign gets under way next week in which city residents are offered free pick-up service.

The two week program begins Monday morning and provides home owners with an opportunity to have rubbish and debris picked up at no cost. The two week program continues from April 24 through April 28 and from May 1 through May 5 under the sponsorship of the City Public Works Department.

Traffic Patterns are Changing

Chief of Police Lyle E. Smith advised today that in the first three months of 1972 a new traffic problem has developed. This problem, now under study, is at the intersection of 19th and South Union Avenue. With the opening of the Sprague Street Overpass, the normal traffic patterns of past years have been completely changed. The arterials which serve the Sprague Street Overpass are now experiencing extremely heavy traffic. This heavy traffic flow is reflected in a rapid increase of accidents, particularly noticeable at 19th and South Union. This intersection now has the highest accident rate in the city, including one fatality.

In an effort to reduce accidents and make the streets more safe, two changes will be made immediately. The Traffic Engineer has changed the traffic signal operation. This signal will be in operation on a 24-hour basis. An increase in enforcement will soon be noted. Radar and motorcycles will be assigned to the general area, especially South 19th in an effort to stop the hazardous violator. Excessive speeds and violations of the traffic signal have been noted in a recent study.

Chief Smith is alerting the motoring public to the increase of enforcement in this area and they can expect to observe a motorcycle or radar car more frequently. Additionally, motorists should be prepared to stop at 19th and South Union day and night as the signal indicates.

LYLE E. SMITH
Chief of Police

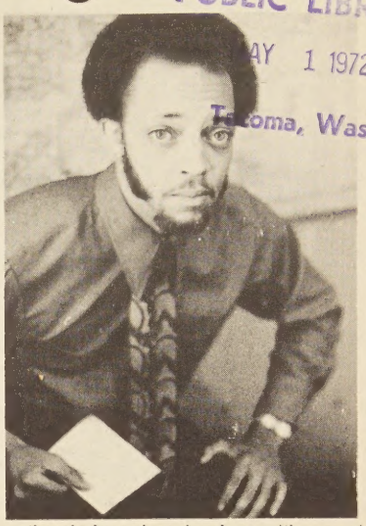
Model City Drug Abuse Program

PUBLIC LIBRARY
AY 1 1972
Tacoma, Wash.



Even though drug abuse has been with man since the beginning of time it has been just recently that Tacoma has begun to make a concentrated effort to solve the drug problem for the youth of our community.

The Narcotic Intake Drop In Center funded by Model Cities and the National Institute of Mental Health opened its doors January 6, 1972, in the hopes of reducing the accelerating rate of drug abuse among the juveniles in the Black community.

The program is under the direction of Alonzo D. Foote, Jr. (A.D.) who has a base staff of three persons who are called Advocates. The Advocates are responsible for seeking out those persons who may be involved in drug abuse and educating them to the hazards of prolonged drug abuse. The Advocates sometimes find it necessary to find suitable employment, schooling or living arrangements for their clients before their clients are willing and able to try and work out their drug problems. The program has a comprehensive referral system at its disposal.

Mr. Foote also has two students working with the program under the Tacoma School District's Community Lab Program. These young people contribute three hours per day to the program as advocate aides. They work under the direct supervision of the Advocates.

The Youth Employment Program of Stadium High School has assigned one student to work part-time with the program.

Since last January, the program has generated a work load of 133 clients. Most of these young people have learned of the program through education seminars that have been held at various high schools. Requests have been received from Lincoln, Wilson and the Malcolm X Youth Center for the staff to have continuing seminars for the students for the duration of the school year.

Each advocate is assigned a caseload of 30-35 clients and schedules one hour a week counseling sessions and group rap sessions as appropriate. The projected goal of the Narcotic Intake Program is to service 150 clients during the first year. Mr. Foote feels that his staff should have no problem meeting their goal and feels confident that each client will receive the best service they have to offer.

Anyone who has a drug problem or would just like to find out more about the program should contact Mr. Foote at FU 3-2211 or visit him at 1704 South "K" Street.

The Black Student Union at the University of Puget Sound will present a special lecture on Thursday, April 27, featuring the west coast representative for the Honorable Elijah Muhammad, Minister Henry Majied.

Majied, representing Muhammad's Temple No. 26 in San Francisco, will speak to the status of the Nation of Islam in the world today, and its influence on black Americans in this decade.

The event, which begins at 7 p.m. in the Student Union Building's Student Lounge, is complimentary to the public.

Mrs. Deloris Silas amd Mr. J. W. Wesley were delegates at the 53rd West Coast Regional Conference, Salt Lake City, Utah. It was held at the Utah Hotel and Utah Motor Lodge, April 21 to 23. 203 delegates registered, 83 were youths. Mr. Clarence Mitchell was the guest speaker. The banquet was held at the Salt Palace. The youths had a great program.

Low-Income Residents Excel in Gate Program

The General Adult Training and Education (GATE) Program offers still another great job opportunity course—cashier training. This course, taught by Mrs. Melva Williams, a Model Cities resident, is primarily designed to give individualized instruction and actual machine practice in cashiering procedures.

Three FREE cashier training classes are scheduled: Monday and Wednesday 1 to 3 and 3 to 5 and Tuesday and Thursday, 6 to 8.

Several Model Cities and other low-income area residents participating in the course have successfully completed 20 or more hours of instruction.

Donna Johnson, of 2543 South Yakima Av., has completed 24 hours; Ellen Irvin, 2501 South G Street, 22 hours; Doris Shaw of 2529 South Yakima, 40 hours (she attended two classes); Agnes Mose of 5709 Valley Avenue East, also 40 hours; Eloise Bushnell of 5006 South Prospect, 32 hours; and Caroline Philpot, of 3705 East I Street, 28 hours of instruction.

Each of these students will receive an outstanding award certificate.

The GATE Program now has a FREE AND RELIABLE child care program designed to take care of children ages 3-14 while you attend class. There are two responsible young ladies in Apartment 71 at Conifer Village from 6 to 10, Monday through Thursday.

If you would like to attend any of the GATE classes, please call LO 4-7200, Ext. 634, and ask to be registered. The GATE advisors are Tom Hilyard, C. J. Oilee and Nolan Osher.

TEN COMMANDMENTS FOR WIVES

1. Honor thy own womanhood, that thy days may be long in the house which thy husband provided for thee.
2. Expect not thy husband to give thee as many luxuries as thy father hath given thee after many years of hard labor economics.
3. Forget not the virtue of good humor, for verily all that a man hath will he give for a woman's smile.
4. Thou shalt not nag.
5. Thou shalt coddle thy husband, for verily every man loveth to be fussed over.
6. Remember that the frank approval of thy husband is worth more to thee than the sidelong glances of many strangers.
7. Forget not the grace of cleanliness and good dressing.
8. Permit no one to assure thee that thou art having a hard time of it; neither thy mother, nor thy sister, nor thy maiden aunt, nor any of thy kinfolk, for the judge will not hold her guiltless who letteth another disparage her husband.
9. Keep thy home with all diligence, for out of it cometh the joys of old age.
10. Commit thy ways unto the Lord thy God and thy children shall rise up and call thee blessed.

BLACK HISTORY

 Blacks became citizens of the United States in 1869.

 1868 - Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitutions granting Blacks full citizenship.

 1870 - Fifteenth Amendment granting Blacks the right to vote.

THEN vs NOW

From 660 to 250 B.C., Ethiopia or Nubia of the Black race, had 25 candaces or ruling queens. One of whom was "Kantakeh" Vth, who was ruling during the days of the apostles. It was during her rule (58-80 A.D.), that Juda (A Black Ethiopian), a Eunuch of great authority, who had charge of all her treasure, was converted to christianity by the Evangelist Phillip of the Bible.

"IT'S TOO LATE WHEN YOU COME IN A HEARSE"

His One Mistake:

He brushed his teeth twice a day---with a nationally advertized toothpaste.
The doctor examined him twice a year.
He wore his overshoes when it rained.
He slep with his windows opened.
He stuck to his diet with plenty of vegetables.
He relinquished his tonsils and traded in several other wornout parts.
He golfed, but only 18 holes in one day.
He never smoked, never drank, never arrested, never chased the girls, never lost his temper, never in a fight, never broke the law of the land.
He got at least eight hours of sleep each night.
He was all set to live to be "100."

The funeral will be tomorrow!

He is survived by 18 specialists,
4 health institutions,
6 gymnasiums, and numerous makers of health food and antiseptics.
All the things that this man did was good, but he made one mistake:

"He forgot God"

"Lived as if the present world was all,"
He is now with those who say, "The harvest is past; the summer is ended, and we are not saved." Jeremiah 8:20.

House My People

The House My People Open House at Bonney Lake on Sunday, April 16th was an outstanding success. Upwards of 200 people attended the ribbon-cutting ceremonies and took the opportunity to tour the five completed homes.

Secretary of Agriculture Earl L. Butz, on behalf of President Richard M. Nixon and Governor Daniel J. Evans, sent letters of congratulations.

Many of the people who toured the homes expressed amazement and delight at the sturdy, professionally finished appearance of these homes. The statement heard over and over again was "I can't believe homes of such outstanding quality could have been built by five low-income families with no previous building experience."

Any low-income family, in need of housing, and willing to build it themselves should contact House My People, Box 219, Sumner, Washington or call UN 3-8188.

A GOOD TIME WAS HELD BY ALL

Team Four at Stanley Elementary School was given a rare treat Monday by Miss Helen Maduaka, Nigerian Consultant for Tacoma Public Schools and Mrs. Ruth Daniels, Title IV Advisory Specialist. The two ladies gave an "Afrian Party" for one hundred seventeen students, their teachers and other guest.

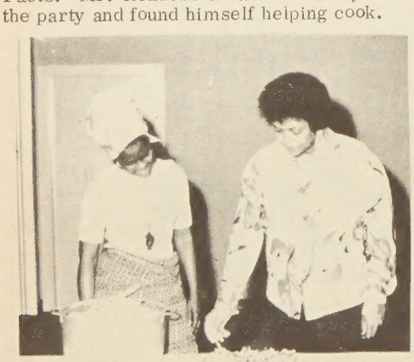
Seven students from the team sliced thin layers of onions, green peppers, fresh tomatoes, boiled eggs and bananas; washed rice; open many cans of shrimps, tuna and tomato paste to help the two ladies while they cut up fryers.

Once the food started cooking, the students and their teachers came into the teams multi-purpose area to see the various stages used in preparing "Chicken African Style", and "Rice. After the meal was prepared, Miss Helen Maduaka explained to the students that living in Nigeria was no different than living in Tacoma, they eat the same foods that the people here eat, but it is prepared different by using fresh tomatoes, various seasoning, hot peppers and fresh fruit. She explained that if you have the money you can live anyway you want as is the case here. She then ask the students to ask her questions. Many students and teachers ask questions.

The students showed their thanks by displaying place mats with African designs on them and singing an African song "Kuma Suma Zar" which said in English that "African Women did not need the men they just thought they did".

The teachers from Team Four: Mrs. Barbara Austin, Miss Judy Barnes, Mrs. Candace Collyer, Mrs. June Dexheimer, Miss Teresa Kobleski, Mrs. Dorcas Oliver, and Mrs. Thora Schuchman served the students the tasty meal with punch.

All the chicken, tuna and shrimps were donated by Mr. James Henderson of the Tacoma Facts. Mr. Henderson came to take pictures of the party and found himself helping cook.



"Black Views" New T.V. Program

Tacoma—"Black Views," a new monthly half-hour television series, dealing with activities and problems of Tacoma's Black community, will be aired on KTNT-TV, Friday, April 28, at 11 p.m.

The format of the new program is patterned after NET's, "Black Journal" and is the first local program series aimed at Tacoma's Black community.

"Black Views" is a joint effort of KTNT-TV's Public Affairs Department and the Metropolitan Development Council of Tacoma (MDC), a non-profit regional development corporation. The executive producer is Al Thierry, until recently assistant director of information for MDC and presently also director of the joint Tacoma Model Cities-MDC Minorities Journalism Training Program.

The first program of the series will include a look at low-income housing problems in Tacoma, a film report on Tacoma's Hilltop Childrens' Clinic and an exciting display of rhythm by the Stanley Elementary School African Drum Group.

The second program in the series, to air Friday, May 26, will provide a comprehensive look at drug problems in the community and efforts to solve them.

James Walton, director of the Tacoma Urban Coalition, is narrator for "Black Views." Several other members of the community have assisted in the program, including assistant producer Excell M. Cain. Howard Shuman, director of education for MDC, and a former Seattle television newsman, is technical advisor.

The history of how "Black Views" came about represents a positive effort in bringing various components of the Black community together. Thierry joined MDC as assistant information director last October, with no previous television or journalism background. Under MDC's employee career development program, he was soon enrolled at The Evergreen State College in the Contract Studies Program. He received college credit for on-the-job public relations learning experience, under the supervision of Shuman. Thierry also enrolled in a newswriting class at Tacoma Community College.

In November, 1971, Thierry and Shuman approached KTNT-TV with their idea for a local television series about the Black community. General Manager Max Bice and assistant manager Ted Knightlinger responded enthusiastically. They offered not only air time for the program but also production assistance, including film, video tape, use of a film cameraman, a director and studio crew.

Thierry met with various individuals and organization in the community to get program ideas and help. Some of the nine trainees in the Minorities Journalism Program will gain experience by assisting in the production of the program. One of them, Ed Haskins, who is employed part-time at KTNT, shot all of the film for the first program. Bill Taber of KTNT-TV directs the program.

Thierry feels that "Black Views" is something the entire Black community can be proud of, and he promises to cover a wide variety of topics in future programs. He also praised KTNT-TV for its willingness to provide time for a minority-oriented program. Thierry added that the problems discussed on "Black Views" should be of interest not only to Blacks but to the entire community.

Meet Your Neighbors

By D. M. McKerson

ANN and CHARLES WALKER

Charles Walker and his charming wife, Ann, have been Tacoma residents for ten years. Eight years ago Charles opened Charle's Walkers Enco Service Station. Since that day he has had very little time for himself. He works twelve hours and more a day. The result of his long hours is a successful enterprise.

As most successful businessmen do, Charles realizes the need for the businessman to be actively involved in the community. "It is necessary for the businessman to make contributions to his community. It might strain a litte—but we have to give a little. We can't take it all home," Charles said.

He has worked actively in various political campaigns. He finds his political involvement to be "time consuming, but worthwhile." He feels that Blacks should strive for economic prosperity before becoming politically involved. Explaining that most people in politics are self-supporting, Charles said that, "This is not true of Blacks. We should have a stronger foothold economically before we endeavor in politics."

He views franchising as a means of economic development in the minority community. This gives an individual the opportunity to "get some knowledge" before jumping into a business situation.

Charles belongs to the Imperial Council, Cascadian Consistory No. 75, and Cassia Lodge No. 5. He is a charter member of the Cabellero Club and president of the Black Businessmen's Association. He is also on the Board of the Urban League.

He calls his wife, Ann, "a beautiful helper." She runs the home and assists him at the station. She likes to create with her hands. On the sofa is a beautiful scarf she crocheted in her favorite bright colors. Her beautiful floral arrangements add the necessary feminine touches to their beautifully decorated home. She collects things too—art by Black artists and sculpture.

Ann belongs to the Dr. E. L. More Orthopedic Guild, Y.W.C.A., League of Women Voters and Daughters of Isaac.

She and Charles have three children: Charles Jr., Sharlene, and Linda Kay Mustin. Like most American mothers, Ann would like to see her children get a good education.

The entire family takes a break from their busy schedules once a year to engage in their favorite pasttime, traveling. Pulling a trailer, they have traveled all over the United States and have seen all the beautiful scenery of the Pacific Northwest.

Chuvalo May foe for Ali

NEW YORK — George Chuvalo will be Muhammad Ali's playmate of the month for May.

Ali, reeling off almost a bout a month in his attempt to line up a heavyweight title rematch against champion Joe Frazier, has signed to meet Chuvalo on May 1 in Vancouver, Canada. Ali registered an unimpressive decision over Mac Foster in Tokyo on April 1.

It will be the second meeting between the two fighters, with Ali then fighting as Cassius Clay, beating Chuvalo in 15 rounds in 1966. Chuvalo, a sturdy Canadian, never has been counted out and never has been knocked down. Frazier stopped him on cuts in four rounds.

The 12-round bout, with Ali guaranteed $200,000 and Chuvalo $60,000, will be on closed circuit television to the United States and live in other foreign countries.

Pizza and Beer Nite

The delicious aroma of melted mozzarella cheese, oregano, and sauce on a light crusty pizza is almost too much for mouth-watering General chairman, Mitch Mullan as he anxiously waits for Italian Pizza chef Ned Garitano to give him a sample of his famous pizza.

We will all be able to break pizza together and enjoy it at a Pizza and Beer Social, sponsored by St. Leo's High School Parents Club for the first time, May 5th in St. Leo's Gym, 1323 South Yakima, Tacoma.

8 p.m. until ?
$3 a couple
$2 a single

A truly enjoyable fun evening is being planned for all who come. Please invite your friends, everyone is welcome.

We will be entertained with accordion music, sing-a-longs, and dancing in the school gymnasium.

A cash raffle drawing, sponsored by the Grade School Parents Club will also be held that evening.

First prize-$1,000 savings bond
Second prize-$300 in cash
Third & Fourth prize-$100 each in cash

Proceeds of Pizza Nite and Raffle will be used to resurface the gymnasium floor, which is in dire need of repair, and to make necessary fire protection improvements to the entire school building.

Tickets may be obtained from Mitch Mullan, SK 2-8339 or may be purchased at the door.
